

May

Limpias, Soul Retrieval & Folk Healing

May 16-18, 2008

12 CEU's available for NM counselors and social workers

Facilitators: Joanne Rossi, LPCC, teacher and practitioner of folk healing, Jeannette Freeman art therapist who actively explores indigenous art and ancient healing traditions, and Frances Wilson, trance practitioner.

This is an introductory workshop designed for new and advanced students who are seeking healing for self and community.

COST: $250.00 includes all meals and lodging

June

Introductory to Ecstatic Trance: Learning the Practice of Ecstatic Trance

June 20-22, 2008

With Jackie Haworth, certified trance instructor, and Rae LeCompte

This workshop is an introduction to the work of Felicitas Goodman and the Cuyamungue Institute, and an exploration of the ancient practice of Ecstatic Trance using Sacred Postures.

You will learn:

- The five stages of ecstatic experience
- How our bodies change during ecstatic trance
- The method for using Sacred Postures, including experiences in healing, divination, shapeshifting, and spirit journeys.

COST: $250.00 includes all meals and lodging

July

Soul Retrieval using Body-Postures

July 24 (dinner) to
July 27 2008

Ki Salmen, certified instructor,
www.dream-visions.de

This work of retrieving soul parts with Body-Postures is a profound self-healing process.

The exciting news is: you can do all of it yourself!

Cost: $450 –includes meals and lodging ($390 if booked before 15th April 2008)

August

Cuyamungue Institute Teacher Training

August 12 – August 17 (Tues. 6 pm – Sun. noon)

With Belinda Gore Ph.D., president of The Cuyamungue Institute.

At the conclusion of this workshop, trainees will work with their mentors to complete the certification process.

Workshop contents include these topics and more:

- Overview of Ecstatic Trance as a body-based spiritual practice
- Five step method for the practice of Ecstatic Trance.
- Ecstatic trance and consciousness studies.
- Methods for deepening personal meaning from trance experiences.

Cost: $600 includes notebook of teaching materials, meals and accommodations

Authentic Movement and Ecstatic Postures

August 20-24, 2008

With Bat-Sheva Koren, Ph.D., dance movement therapist, teaches Authentic Movement in Israel and Toronto, and is the director of the Toronto Dance Movement Therapy Institute., and Belinda Gore, president of The Cuyamungue Institute.

The core of authentic movement is a mystical discipline: the act of being present and awakening to Direct Experience through stillness, movement or witnessing. Learn this practice combined with sacred postures.

COST: $500 includes meals and lodging